

MADONNA

an outrage!

ARISING tide of outraged American parents are demanding that the authorities have rock music's super-sexy Steam Queen Madonna banned.

And they would have people like her, including Prince, Frankie Goes to Hollywood and Cyndi Lauper relegated to the muck heap.

"Our youngsters are being exploited and manipulated by rock stars like Madonna, who take a public-b damned attitude when it comes to morals," says Margaret Scott, co-director of United Parents Under God, in California.

"They are destroying our nation by tearing the family apart. Our kids are being victimised by these disgusting stars.

"The kids worship Madonna and all these stars as if they were gods. They should all be banned to save our children from ruin."

Kandy Stroud, a member of the advisory board for the Washington-based Parents' Music Resource Center, said: "On stage, Madonna acts like a porn queen in heat.

"Her manager admits that sex is her trademark — but she's teaching the 12-year-old girls who flock to her concerts her version of what sex is all about.

"Her concerts — and others like hers — have gone about as far as they can go.

But Madonna had defiantly said: "As long as I'm riding high on the charts, I don't care if they call me trashy.

Stroud claims rock songs glorify drug use, violence and suicide.

"These stars are role models, the only heroes and heroines young people have today," said Stroud.

"If our kids choose to imitate these

Turn to page 52

Madonna: Doesn't care what she's called if fans like her act.

